"I'm proud to be associated with my family history in Lenasia, my second home, and I'm humbled to have had the opportunity to grow up in this vibrant community," says Dylan Naidoo, the newly crowned SA Open 2025 Golf Champion. "My roots in Lenasia have played a significant role in shaping me into the person I am today, and I'm grateful for the values of perseverance and determination that have been instilled in me. My family support every step of the way, especially my mum and dad who were born and bred in the Lenasia."

As he reflects on his remarkable journey to becoming a golfing champion, Naidoo emphasizes the importance of dreaming big and pushing beyond one's limits. "My message to the kids of Lenasia would be to dream big and then go even bigger!" he exclaims. "Big things are only possible if you allow yourself to picture them and make them a reality. Don't be afraid to aim high and work towards making your dreams a reality."

With his historic win, Naidoo has not only brought pride to his community but has also become a beacon of inspiration for young golfers and aspiring champions across the country. As he looks to the future, Naidoo remains committed to giving back to his community and empowering the next generation of leaders and champions.
