School Overview:

VISION & MISSION

Vision

- Religion is giving good advice
- By the passing of time, surely man is at loss. Except those who believe and do righteous deeds, enjoin one another to the truth, and enjoin one another to be steadfast. [Q103:V1-3]

Mission

- Provide a quality, Islamic-based formal and informal education, to prepare pupils to meet the contemporary challenges of their country and the world.
- Uphold academic attainment with strong Islamic Akhlaaq (Character) as cherished ideals.
- Provide opportunities for learners to develop their skills and develop the Islamic values of brotherhood within the school and the general broader community.
- Establish and participate in forums that will enable the learners and teachers to do community service.
- Focus on current issues affecting the South African nation and the Muslim Community in particular.

Mission Statement

- Intention – with good intentions, success will follow.
- Commitment & dedication: Commit to every task, teacher, parent & learner.
- Take responsibility as a leader and be accountable.
- Education through innovation and creativity leaves for a healthier nation.
- Provide educational services that allow all our girls to experience learning success

Ethos/Values

- Sense of identity and pride in the school.
- Equality, Fairness and Non-racism
- Developing learners as loyal citizens to contribute to the development of South Africa.
- Courtesy to parents, teachers, all other staff and visitors
- Achievement in academic, extra-murals and sports activities.
- Use of praise for achievements and contributions to school life.
- Pupils report that teachers care about them.
- Building responsibility by taking care of the school's property and equipment.
- Create an awareness of the Muslim role to address poverty in South Africa and in the world.
- Pupils are encouraged to work on their own, or in their groups, to do their best.
- Uphold academic attainment, with strong moral character, as cherished ideals

HISTORY / BACKGROUND / ACHIEVEMENTS

It was founded in 1989 as a girls' high school. The roots were established by a retired education stalwart, Mr Moosa Lorgat, who as its first acting principle. He handed over the reins to Mr Ahmed Vawda. Four years later the school was re-structured as a co-ed primary school starting with Grades 1 to 4. It was a strategic move to strengthen and develop the school.

In 1997 and 2007 the Board approved expansion programme to build an additional classroom – including specialist rooms – storerooms and ablution facilities. A re-structuring took place in 2012, and the new board decided to go back to the original dream of a girls-only school.

Some highlights and achievements:

1. A founding member of the Association of Muslim Schools (AMS) in 1989.
